April 2008 NAPW Newsletter

Montreal Wine Tasting Event, Scholarship Update

We enjoyed another successful event with our neighbors to the north at the NAPW Wine Tasting Event in Montreal back in February. There was a great turnout for featured speaker Colin Johnson from AbitibiBowater.

We also presented our 2008 Scholarship winner with a $1,500 check. This year's winner was Lisa Marie Lanteigne-Roch from Three Rivers Quebec University. Lisa spoke to the group about her studies as a first year student in the Paper Science Masters Program.

Due to the generous donations from Kruger, Inc supporting the Canadian scholarship fund, we were able to increase our 2008 Scholarship Award by $500 this year.

Scholarships for Syracuse University and North Carolina State will be presented later this year. We hope to increase these scholarships to $1,500 next year.

And remember, your donations to the Charitable Foundation are greatly appreciated! Go to www.napw.org and print out a copy of our Membership Form to make a donation today.

Annual Luncheon in New York City

Our Annual Luncheon during Paper Week in March was another smashing success. We couldn't have been more pleased with the turnout. Our featured speaker, Johnny Gold of The Newark Group, did a find job of navigating us through "The last 20 Years and The Next 20 Years" in the paper industry. For many, it was a bumpy yet amusing walk down memory lane. While for others, it was a priceless history lesson. Big thanks to Johnny for giving such an informative presentation.

Big thanks for our corporate sponsors:

Invitation Design	Cellmark
Wine Service	Canusa Hershman Corp.
Flowers	Solvay Paperboard

And thanks to these companies that donated raffle gifts:

$100 Macy Card	Canusa Hershman Corp
$100 Best Buy	America Chung Nam
$100 Target	Welsh Recycling

$100 American Express
Handmade Bowl
Backpack/AM EX Card
iPod

Allied Waste
Weyerhaeuser
Pratt Industries
Solvay Paperboard

The lucky winner of the 50/50 Raffle went home with $265. Congratulations to ALL prize winners!

All profits from the raffle drawings and the 50/50 split go directly to our scholarship fund. This year's combined sales totaled $805.

Special Thanks To George

We couldn't have made any strides on our website without the help of our good friend George Jucha, Jr., of Independent Recycling Services. We'd like to send out a very special thank you to George for his hard work, patience and generous donation of $2,550 towards upgrading our website. Construction on the site will continue throughout the summer. Go to www.napw.org to check out the fruits of his labor and what's to come!
